

NEW FEATURES AT THE BRODHEAD FAIR

HORSE SHOW EACH NIGHT IN FRONT OF GRAND STAND

Special Rings are being made up for the occasion. Same may be had by writing the Secretary or calling at his office during the Fair.

It is the object of the Association to make the night shows most interesting.

EDUCATED HORSES

In addition to the special show rings, arrangements have been made with Prof. A. T. McDonald, of New York City, with his string of educated horses, for the first time visiting any Kentucky towns, to give his performances each evening, and at no other time will his performances be shown except at night.

The Famous Wild West SHOW PERFORMANCES AT NIGHT ONLY

In addition to the free performances each day on the track, consisting of Hippodrome, Races, etc., a special feature will be rendered each night, consisting of the most daring feats of Wild West performances.

AERIAL PERFORMANCES

Consisting of Casting, Flying and Mid-Air Leaps.

This feature will last from twenty to thirty minutes and is the most dangerous performances now being staged in open air.

BAND CONCERTS

A special program of Music is being arranged for each night performance, which will add to the occasion as only the best music will be used on this occasion.

The grounds will be handsomely lighted, and enclosed by 600 feet of Wall Tent. Each performance will be given in front of the Grand Stand within the enclosure mentioned, and a change of program rendered each night. This is a new feature never before attempted by a country Fair in Kentucky, and we hope to make it the best part of our entertainment. All special features are very costly to the Association, and the program to be rendered will be no part of any performance shown at any time on the grounds, but are specially reserved for night.

Everyone come expecting to stay for the night show.

Show to begin promptly at 7:30 p.m.

BECKHAM WINS HIS FIGHT FOR SENATOR AT BLUEGRASS FAIR

RESULTS OF THE PRIMARY

GOV. MCCREARY MAKES POOR

THE STATE.

The Seven Representatives Who Did Not Have Contests Scored a Clean for Election in November—Powers Wins Easy Victory.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Louisville, Ky.—That J. C. W. Beckham had defeated A. O. Stanley for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Kentucky was indicated when returns from 111 counties, most of them complete, gave Beckham a majority of about 2,500 votes. Even the figures of the opposition confirm this estimate. As the missing counties are all in the Tenth and Eleventh Districts, where a complete report will be lacking for a day or so, and all conceded to Beckham, every indication is that the Beckham majority will be built up near the 2,500 mark. Beckham has carried 93 of the 120 counties. Eight of the eleven districts have given him a majority. His concession of three districts to Stanley, made by his campaign managers sev-

Ex-Governor J. C. W. Beckham.

eral days before the primary, has been come out. Gov. McCreary's surprisingly poor race, with scarcely a credible representation anywhere, was a matter of much political comment.
The governor's meager vote is conceded to have weighed heavily against Stanley's chances. Beckham's hand-ry, "right the wrong," referring to his former senatorial ambitions and the enlight at the hands of a Democratic majority, is believed to have been a factor in his victory. Johnson A.
Anderson's tremendous majority brought out the state for the showing nomination is an outstanding feature of the primary. Camden sec-ed entire state by a vote that is remarkable. Only the official return can tell the story. "Victory overwhelming" supplanted all figures in elegraphic reports on his race. Aun-he Republican race for the U. S.
Senate, that between Wilson and Er-is still very close, though the former governor is said to have a safe main. The Progressive vote in state was a light that few reports of it were made. Barton Vance, of Louisville, ad a comfortable lead over his opponent, Judge George W. Jolly of Owensboro. Several merry mules were tagged for congressional nomination in the various districts. While the lights were not while they lasted, results show that the winners in con-ce pulled away by large majorities in the Democratic races the following figures are given: First district, Barkey, Dem., 2,700; Second district Cincheloe, Dem., 6,400; Third district, Thomas, Dem., 2,000; Fourth district, Johnson, Dem., 8,000; Fifth district, Shirley, Dem., 9,200; Sixth district, no contest; Seventh district, Cantrill, Dem., 6,700; Eighth district, no contest; Ninth district, Florida Dem., 5,000; Tenth district, no contest; Eleventh district, Powers, Rep.,

ANNUAL EXHIBITION AT BLUEGRASS FAIR

KENTUCKY'S GREAT AGRICUL-TURAL AND LIVE STOCK EXPOSITION HELD.

HORSE SHOW IS A FEATURE

The Heart of the Blue Grass Region and in the Center of Fine Breeding Section.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Lexington, Ky.—The Bluegrass fair, the great agricultural live stock exposition, and the annual social and amusement event of Central Kentucky was held here through the week. Situated as Lexington is, in the heart of the Bluegrass region, the center of the fine live stock breeding section of the United States, and in the midst of a more diversified and fruitful agricultural activity than perhaps any other part of the country, the Bluegrass fair is an institution peculiar to itself and is typical of the Bluegrass region of Kentucky. The preliminary enterprise for the exhibitions and the inquiries received indicated that the fair would be the greatest success it was, the greatest and most largely attended by any of the series, which has extended through many years. The features of the horse show were rings for three-and five-gaited saddle horses, roadsters and fine harness horses, while among the races was the $1,000 stake for 2-year-old trotters. Tuesday was the time of the exhibitions of mules Hereford cattle, Tamworth and Hampshire hogs and Shropshire sheep. In addition to the rings for breeding classes for saddle horses, including a $1,000 stake for sucklings; roadsters, fine and heavy harness horses, five and three-gaited saddle horses, and ponies other than Shetlands. On Wednesday the exhibitions of jacks and jennies, breeding classes for trotting horses, Berkshire, Poland China and Duroc-Jersey hogs, Southdown, Cheviot, Hampshire-Down and Suffolk sheep, while the horse show had the roadster stake, saddle and fine harness horse rings, with the contest for the best boy rider. Thursday's exhibition comprised the breeding classes for American saddle horses, rings for draft horses and Shetland cattle, while the chief feature of the horse show was the rings for five-gaited saddle horses.
Although there will be contests also for three-gaited saddle horses, and roadsters, and a runabout horse ring. On Friday the Jersey cattle exhibition, with classes for Shetland ponies, the $100 stake for three-gaited saddle horses, and rings for five-gaited saddle horses, and fine harness horses, and a ring for ponies other than Shetlands.
Saturday was thoroughbred day, in which the breeding classes for thoroughbred horses brought out many of the famous former stars of the turf, as well as their youthful progeny which will be the future great race horses of the country. In addition there were rings for roadsters, the best girl driver under 12 years old the best boy driver, planting the aged and junior championship three-gaited saddle horses and the Eldridge special prize for saddle stallion or mare 3 years old and under.

Covington, Ky.—What is believed may lead to a solution of the mystery surrounding the disappearance of the

The Rate Case Decision.

The Interstate Commerce Commission's decision in the Eastern rate cases is by no means all that the railroads asked, it is decidedly more than they had been led to expect by what purported to be authentic forecasts sent broadcast in the past few weeks. The increase granted include both class and commodity rates and are confined exclusively to the lines between Pittsburgh and Buffalo and the Mississippi. No increase is granted on Atlantic seaboard rates or on such commodities as coal, coke and iron. The total increase is estimated at 1 1/2 per cent., less than half, it will be seen, of what the railroads asked. That a larger increase was not made is due to the commission's belief, that though conditions may warrant it, the railroads have not made out a case sufficient to justify it. Further, the commission is convinced that there are economies in the way of increased passenger rates and the abolition of all passes which can be made to add materially to the railroads' net revenues. Considering the successful fight in the South and East for lower passenger rates, this recommendation of the commission comes as a distinct surprise. Whether it could be put into effect is a question reasonably open to a difference of opinion under normal conditions. As things are now, it is a practical impossibility.

Taken as a whole, however, the chief significance of the decision lies in the fact that the commission, by a majority of five—Mr. Daniels going even further than his associates, Mr. McChord alone dissenting—has reached the conclusion that the limit to which enforced retrenchment by the railroads can be carried with justice has not only been arrived at, but exceeded.

Coming at any other time the decision would have made immediately and emphatically for a restoration of business confidence and a renewal of railroad activity. With the whole of Europe in a death grapple, it is difficult to see wherein the decision can, for the time being, have more than an academic interest. Later on, when the United States is called on to supply the world's markets and to take over in the commerce of South America and the Far East the place now held by Germany, the decision will be one of the contributing factors, in an era of prosperity such as no other nation has dreamed of and for which American foresight, by the building of the Panama canal and the passage of the tariff act, together with the insanity that has mastered Europe, has paved the way.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Whatever other conclusions may be drawn as a result of Saturday's primary, one thing on the face of present surface indications, seems certain, and that is Mr. Stanley's nomination for Governor next year by the Democratic primary.

The second conclusion is that State wide prohibition will be the issue in the primary campaign, if not in the general election and that Mr. Stanley, in the primary will be the perhaps avowed representative of that element in his party which is opposed to State wide prohibition of the liquor traffic.

These two propositions seem at this time to be inevitable.

Mr. Stanley has his campaign for Governor already made. He could probably win it without making another speech.

The result of this race with Beckham leads to the belief that had the campaign lasted two weeks longer he would have been successful. He seems to be the sort of a candidate that his party wants, and no one of the gentlemen now talked of as a probable candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor could defeat him if he entered the race.—Lexington Leader.

FAIR NOTES

On account of the high wind the balloon man could not fly the second day.

Vice President J. H. Coffey was one of the hard workers and rendered much valuable assistance.

R. B. Mullins, director, was an indispensable adjunct in the secretary's office.

C. B. McKenzie, V. C. Tate and T. J. Pennington were our ticket sellers and they were good ones.

Tom Proctor and Logan Sowder were on the job at the gate as usual.

The fair company wishes to express to Judge Ballard, Sheriff Com Mullins, Jailor Winstead and their corps of splendid assistants their thanks for the splendid order maintained, and for the prompt way in which all the drunks and bullies were shown to head in. They were thirty six in jail at one time.

Directors, W. G. Hysinger, J. W. Parsons and Tom Kirby were always on the job and took care of the matters on the outside. None worked harder than these three to make everything go well.

T. J. Nicely makes an ideal ring master.

W. H. Fish and Chas. C. Davis, the secretary and president, certainly deserves much credit for the work done for the Fair. They worked hard and have been at it for a long time.

The horsemen all went away from Mt. Vernon satisfied if some of them did not get very much money.

That prince of gentlemen, Walter Walker, of Stanford, drove over Friday and did the judging and there was no kicking on his decisions. He knows a good horse when he sees it.

The 1914 exhibition of the Mt. Vernon Fair will long be remembered as one of the best ever pulled off in South-Eastern Kentucky.

Next week will show a list of the horsemen and good horses at the Mt. Vernon Fair.

Wm. Bullock who has done as much if not more than any other one man to make the Mt. Vernon fair the biggest and best in the country, was right on the job working early and late.

There are many who have done valuable service for the fair whose names we do not have, but will be included in the final report.

The Swain show band furnished the music, which was first class.

A big Mt. Vernon Fair is the universal decision of every one who attended.

Our edition is a little late this week, but this is fair week, the office force has worked hard for many weeks and deserved a rest which we gladly gave them, even though there had been no paper at all. We will be right on the job hereafter and endeavor to give our readers the very best paper possible each week. We ask our correspondents to send in regular each week all the good news of their respective localities or communities.

The admission to the Brodhead fair will be twenty five cents, a good square meal for 25 cents. Plenty of good shade and pure water at the Brodhead fair.

The Brodhead Fair Association has added a special feature to their program this season, which is a horse show at night together with some special attractions consisting of educated horses and wild west and other performances.

The Mt. Vernon fair which closes to day has been all that the fair association could ask for. The floral hall far surpassed the expectations of any one and the stock rings, show rings and races were as good as ever seen at any country fair in the state, because the best show horses in the State are on the grounds. Many of the noted horsemen of the state are here and in our next issue will be given a full and complete account.

We were surprised how young he looks and so full of life. —The primary election is over and it was surprising how little interest was taken by both sides but the tug of war will come in November at the general election. —U. T. Barnes, a worker for the Baptist Young Peoples' Union, was here several days last week holding an institute at the Baptist church. The members of the organization at this place were much edified and strengthened, being better equipped for the work before them and feel that never before have they had the ability for training the young people for Christian service that they now have. They have organized their union and are looking forward to great results. —On last Sunday a number of the young people spent the day with Miss Annie Walton at her beautiful Klondike house and enjoyed a dinner that is seldom served in the county of about ten courses. Those present were Misses Florence Pennington, Nettie Rice, Minnie Wood Quiggs of Elizabethtown, Ky., Alice Ward and Georgia Amyx and Messrs John Fields, Earl Rice and John Clark. —The Big Mt. The thing to do is to patronize your home Fair and we don't believe anyone will regret the time spent in attending the Mt. Vernon Fair this year. —Miss Fred Owens of Elmwood, Ohio, is visiting relatives here. —Fred Beaver, of Etowah, came to our town a few days ago and took Miss Nettie Farley to Knoxville, Tenn., where they were made man and wife. May their pathway be strewn with roses and may their journey through life be one of pleasure. —Mrs. John Mullins is visiting relatives at Mt. Vernon this week. —Uncle Fritz Krueger was with his son, W. H. Krueger, Sunday. —Fred Baker, the bustling clerk for U. G. Baker and G. S. Griffin was in Mt. Vernon, Sunday. —Still the man from Stanford is making his regular visits to our town and that on Sunday. We don't see how it is that a salesman would come to see our merchants every time on Sunday. We are satisfied that one of our pretty girls is the attraction. We will not give his name; so John need not worry on that point. One of the finest rains of the season fell here Monday, although most of the crops are past redemption, yet it will do a great deal of good. —Miss E. Fishbach, of Mt. Vernon, was with her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Shroeder, Friday. —H. M. Kink, of the Big Hill, was here Saturday, enroute home from Pineville, has almost recovered from the shots he received about two weeks ago. —Mr. and Mrs. Geo. O'Mary, of Jellico, are visiting their son, J. T. O'Mary, of this place. —Mrs. J. R. Orndoff and grand daughter, Miss Nellie Hagan, who have been visiting relatives at Harrodsburg have returned home. —Mrs. J. W. Rambo, who has been visiting her son, D. B. Rambo, of this place, has returned to her home at Maywood, Ky. —Mrs. J. H. Browning is visiting relatives in London, Ky. —C. I. Rambo was in Maywood, Monday.

POINTMENT

Judge B. J. Bathurum's Ad-vice

The heading if adopted by the printer will tend to show what the judge intended. Viz:

It is the Judge's "Ad" pointing out what he intends to do with the "Vice" part of it.

The Judge knows whereof he speaks, if not practically and experimentally he does know from "common rumor" "common rumor" is mighty good testimony when a witness is brought before the court to tell on oath what he or she knows about a neighbor's standing as to truth and veracity as we have plain old fashioned honesty.

It is truly gratifying to see public sentiment aroused and the political conscience quickened. What we did voters once regard as fine sport, and good pastime especially at our August election has somewhat lost its "snap". The good old "Ginger cake Handcorder" days have gone to return no more. The Australian Ballot system forever broke up the habit of buying voters in "Blocks of five" marching the sellers in platoons, to the polls drunk as lords to vote "viva voce" the red ticket, the black or blue.

A new era in national life has dawned,—public sentiment has been aroused.

We are seeing as we never saw before the indignities that have been heaped upon, the clean, sober intelligent citizen-hip of the nation. We are beginning to apprehend the danger that confronts us as a people. The ironies that have been made and are now in progress of making by the prostitution of our only safe guard, to American civil and religious liberty. Viz: The sanctity of the ballot box is alarming.

Dear friends do you realize what you have done to the man whom you bribe to vote, or to do anything contrary to law.

An awful hue and cry is raised when some poor wretch is hired to give false testimony in a court of justice.

If it is a crime, for him, a felony, to be guilty of perjury what shall be said of the man, or men who hired him to swear. If it is a crime for a poor ignorant, besotted wretch to sell his political liberty what shall be said of the man or men that furnishes the means and the other fellow that clinches the bargain? It is getting to be a serious joke, to buy and sell votes. It is becoming awful risky. When such men as the Judge in Adams County, Ohio, and Judge Benton of Clark County Ky., and Judge B. J. Bathurum of Pulaski county and others put their foot on it.

Somebody is going to get their foot in it, some of these latter days.

It's bad enough, to tempt a sober man, to take a bribe, but what of the man, who without any sign of remorse of conscience, procures aids or abets in the double dyed, infamous crime of brutalizing a human being, by making him drunk, in order to get him to vote or to make him incapable of getting to the polling place?

Is it possible, that public sentiment, in this boasted age, this 20th century of the Christian Era, a time of public education—of religious zeal and activity—is it possible that any man or set of men, can, and will, deliberately plan to carry an election, by these means? If so, God help our State and nation! God save our homes our wives and children and our beloved country and may God in his infinite love and mercy pity and save those who knowing their duty in this regard doeth it not, is our prayer.

TO-DAYS WAR NEWS AT A GLANCE

German troops invaded Russian Poland to-day and occupied the town of Kalisz.

The German army violated the neutrality of Belgium, of which Great Britain is protector. German troops occupied the Belgian town of Arlon.

Belgium had previously refused to consider an ultimatum offering a certain agreement with Germany in case Belgium agreed to facilitate the movements of the German army.

So grave is the situation regarding that a coalition government of all parties probably will be formed in the British Isles, while it was generally expected that Field Marshal Earl Kitchener was to be appointed Minister of War.

Dowager Empress Maria, of Russia, was stopped by the Germans in Berlin on her way to Russia and told to return to London or go to Denmark.

The Russian naval port of Liban on the Baltic was bombarded by a German cruiser, which was also engaged with a Russian cruiser.

The German fleet was reported sailing into the North Sea, where the British fleet is said to be concentrated.

The German Ambassador had not yet left Paris to-day.

Fighting between Russian and German cavalry patrols on the frontier resulted in slight losses.

French officers are reported to have attempted to go across the Dutch frontier into Germany, but unsuccessfully.

French airmen are said to have made daring flights over German territory.

German cavalry is reported to have crossed the French frontier near Belfort and tried to commandeer horses.

Marital law was proclaimed thruout France, where the mobilization and concentration of the various armies have been carried out satisfactorily.

The German authorities accuse the French of violating neutrality and of crossing the frontiers before the declaration of war.

Neutral Luxemburg is occupied by 10,000 German troops.

THE KITCHEN GARDEN AND HOME ORCHARD

Gardening and Fruit Growing Appeals to Man--Profit Made From Small Plot.

Perhaps there is no branch of agriculture that appeals to man more than that of gardening and fruit growing.
The desire to see something growing as the result of our own efforts is by no means confined to the man living in the country, for it appeals to the man living in the city as well. In a great many cases it is said to relate that the city man, with his small backyard garden, too often puts his country brother to shame when it comes to the matter of a home orchard or, better still, a kitchen garden. The average man in the country justifies himself for the lack of a garden because of the lack of time or more often because gardening is woman's work.
While it is true that the work necessary for the proper care of the orchard and garden often conflicts with the more important farm operations, still it is not a legitimate excuse, because the satisfaction and profits derived are generally greater in proportion than those derived from other crops.

The profit derived from a good kitchen garden, where asparagus, rhubarb, cucumbers and other vegetables are grown, is almost invaluable from the standpoint of health, as well as wealth.
Who does not relish a meal where one of these vegetables is served after living all winter on the heavy nitrogenous foods that make up the major portion of the bill of fare during the cold months?

Fortunately this condition does not hold true for all the sections of the state. In the mountains one can not help being impressed with the number of small kitchen gardens that are located near the house and for the most part tended by the housewives. In this garden one will find all sorts of vegetables that do well during the summer and early fall before the frost appears. At the same time one can not help being impressed by the absence of hardy vegetables that will keep well during the winter months.
The small fruits, such as the strawberry, gooseberry and raspberries all to well, as evidenced by the fact that they are to be found growing wild on the hillsides, still like the late vegetables they are conspicuous by their absence.

It is possible that a great deal could be made in many sections of Eastern Kentucky by planting out the smaller fruits and providing means for canning them at home if necessary. All of the mining districts consume great quantities of canned fruits and these could be easily put up in many cases.
In the mining districts, for often times mining operations are stopped during the summer months when the small fruit crop is at its height. While small fruits offer quicker returns, on should not lose sight of the more stable fruits like the apple, pear, peach and plum. The apple especially gives great promise in Eastern Kentucky.
The peach and plum are more uncertain because of the climate and the pear is very susceptible to blight.

The many caves located toward the tops of the mountains offer excellent opportunities for the production of the highest grade of fruit. The two prime requisites for apple culture, namely, good air and water drainage are provided in nearly every section.
The question of marketing will be a very important part of successful fruit growing. Kentucky annually imports a great deal of fruit from the north, even in view of the fact that the state ranks fifth in the number of bearing trees. A large amount of this imported fruit is shipped from the West and from Michigan where labor and the allied means of production are very much higher than they are in Kentucky. An authority on this subject recently stated that it costs one dollar and forty-three cents to produce and market a bushel of western fruit on our eastern market.
If the western growers can make profit after this excessive charge, the Kentucky growers should be able to equal it at least with the market at his own door.

Disease and insect pests cause a great deal of loss because no systematic effort has been made to keep them in control, and undoubtedly this accounts for the great damage so often noted. San Jose scale is especially bad and it promises to wipe out many of the old orchards entirely. Although it appears very bad to the casual observer, it has often been termed a blessing in disguise where proper means of control are employed.

A great many farmers feel that they can not afford to wait long enough for an orchard to mature. It is true that it takes a long time for an orchard to come into bearing, but if the plan of growing small fruits as a side line is followed while the trees are growing a profitable income will thereby be derived.

The fruit grown in Eastern Kentucky is equal to that produced in any other section. The standard varieties like Rome, Grimes, Jonathan, York Imperial, not to mention the Berry Red, Champion, King David, Black Ben and many others that are not so commonly found.

People interested in fruit growing and gardening throughout Eastern Kentucky will do well to visit the horticultural car that is soon to traverse the railroads in that section. Various orchard practices, such as planting, cultivation, pruning and spraying, will be fully discussed. In addition samples of the various diseases and insect pests will be on exhibition and the proper means of control will be fully explained.

When you want a good deal in the daytime, feel dull, achey and want to stretch frequently it is an unmistakable symptom of malaria, and unless you do something at once you are booked for a spell of chills. HERBINE is a mild medicine that will prevent or cure the disease. It drives out the impurities on which the malarial germ thrives, strengthens the liver and cleanses the bowels. Price 50c.

GREAT ADVANTAGE IN FRUIT CULTURE

SPECIAL AGRICULTURAL TRAIN

STARTS ON JULY FIFTEEN

Train Equipped With Most Interesting and Instructive Exhibits That Can Be Secured for the Trip.

On July 15th the Agricultural Experiment Station will send out from Lexington an agricultural special train, which will make a ten-day tour of Eastern Kentucky in the effort to add interest to the proper tillage of the soil of that section. It is, of course, understood that through the mountains of Kentucky the area of land suitable Pear tree affected with tree blight.

for general cropping is limited and a system of agriculture suitable to these conditions must sooner or later be adopted.

In view of these facts the Experiment Station wishes to show to the people of Eastern Kentucky the great advantages of fruit raising and general horticulture, also the advisability of going in heavily into poultry production in a section so finely adapted to the production of choice fruit and poultry.

In addition to these two specialities there have been prepared for this train exhibits bearing on the lumbering industry, and, as in other branches, the best authorities have been engaged to lecture.

The train will be equipped with the most interesting and instructive exhibits that can be prepared, and it will be a great disappointment to the Experiment Station if the people do not visit this train in large numbers. A lively interest in its mission and profit by its teachings.

ceived from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

ness, malaria, chills and fever, biliousness, and all similar
